

Mayor moves to protect Miss Madison Inc. assets

BY SPECIAL TO THE COURIER

Madison Mayor Bob Courtney announced Monday he has taken action to safeguard the assets and legacy of Miss Madison Racing, the most storied and longest-running community-owned hydroplane racing team in the world.

This action, which includes removing five board members, follows concerns regarding the sale of assets and financial and contractual claims impacting Miss Madison Inc. (MMI). The community racing team began with a gift of the “Nitrogen Too” hydroplane to the City of Madison by Samuel and Joanne DuPont in 1963. In 1970, Miss Madison Inc. (MMI) was formed to promote the city through hydroplane racing, with board members appointed by the mayor. Racing under the Miss Madison name and its sponsors’ banner using leased city assets, the team became a vital part of Madison’s history and identity. Over the decades, Miss Madison won 12 national championships and competed continuously from the early 1960s until 2024.

In mid-November 2024, the city of Madison became aware that an agreement was approved by the team’s Chairman Charles Grooms and current MMI board members to sell its two hydroplane hulls and related equipment to a buyer in Washington state, bringing an end to the era of Miss Madison.

The agreement included property belonging to the City of Madison.

In response, Courtney has restructured the MMI board to ensure transparency and accountability in all financial and legal matters going forward and unfortunately finds it necessary to remove the five board members.

In addition, a city press release stated that concerns have arisen regarding significant claims on MMI’s assets, including the largest current claim tied to Grooms. Given that there is no record of the appointment of current board members by any sitting mayor other than Grooms, and no boat left to manage, in addition to the conflicts of interest with Grooms, Courtney has removed all members not appointed by his administration in an effort to restore proper governance of the corporate entity.

A commissioned portrait of Hanover College’s first Black graduate — Alma Gene Prince Saunders — was unveiled Friday at a dedication ceremony to commemorate her place in history.

“Before Alma Gene Prince could become the first Black graduate of Hanover College, she had to become the first Black student at Hanover College in over a century,” said Hanover College President Lake Lambert.

Saunders, born in Carrollton, Kentucky, applied for admission to Hanover College in 1948, as a transfer student from Indiana University and graduated in 1951.

Commissioners OK zoning allowing Dollar General in Dupont

BY BOB DEMAREE

A zoning change was approved at Thursday’s County Commissioners meeting as the final action needed to allow development of a Dollar General Store in the town of Dupont.

The zoning change from R-1 (residential) and AG (agricultural) to GB (general business) rezones 18.91 acres off State Road 7 in northern Dupont owned by Jerry Ferguson and David Ferguson.

Will McDonough, project engineer at Paul Primavera and Associates of Corydon, said the Dollar General project will involve purchasing two of those acres with only that portion developed for the 10,640 square foot retail store.

The Plan Commission had voted for a favorable recommendation on the application to the County Commissioners at its Jan. 21 meeting.

At the Tuesday, Feb. 4, meeting of the Plan Commission, concerns were expressed by Dupont residents Ralph Birge and Darrell Bye, who are next door neighbors in the 10600 block of North 700W, which is located about 900 feet behind what will be the location of the Dollar General.

“The only concern I have, is if there going to be a fence all the way around it?” Birge said, expressing safety and privacy concerns from the Dollar General if there is no fence. Plan Commission President Warren Auxier said it was his understanding that there is “definitely plans for putting up a 6-foot privacy fence,” which was confirmed by McDonough at the Commissioners meeting, who said it will be a 650-foot vinyl fence all the way around three sides of the property.

Bye attended both the Plan Commission meeting and the Commissioners meeting with concerns that the Dollar General will impact his enjoyment of living in a rural place.

“I moved out to the country to go out and see the stars,” he said, and was concerned how the presence of the new store will change that.

McDonough said the lighting for the Dollar General will be “down-lit so that it doesn’t shine out,” which should decrease the impact that the business has on neighbors.

Bye was also concerned about the impact of the Dollar General on his property taxes.

County Auditor Heather Huff anticipated that the business may actually lower Bye’s taxes.

“When you get a higher assessed building like that, your amount of tax that you can bring in is capped by the state, and you have a max growth levy, so if you get something that has a large assessment it normally helps your tax bill.”

OurSIRDA nearer to threshold for release of READI 2.0 funds

BY BOB DEMAREE

The possibility of $8.5 million in READI 2.0 funding being available for three Jefferson County projects awarded grants through Our Southern Indiana Regional Development Authority seems more likely based on recent discussions.

At its meeting Friday, the announcement was made that the region has nearly achieved the Indiana Economic Development Corporation’s (IEDC) criteria that will allow those funds to be disbursed.

The IEDC requires that at least 65% of previously allocated READI 1.0 funding must be spent before READI 2.0 funding will be made available.

Jill Oca, an accountant with the OurSIRDA administrative firm River Hills Economic Development District Regional Planning Commission, said the region has now spent 63% of its READI 1.0 funds after $2.5 million was spent over the last two months.

“We’re excited about that,” said Oca. “IEDC has been processing these claims and paying them quickly. Good news.”

Cory Cochran, executive director of River Hills, said he anticipates the 65% threshold will be achieved in the next couple of months, but it’s likely that access to the funds won’t happen until May at the earliest, or potentially in June. Even though the claims may have gone through OurSIRDA, it must then get the OK of the IEDC. “It has to be approved and actually disbursed,” he said.

The city of Madison was awarded $3.5 million to create a permanent amphitheater at Bicentennial Park and $2 million to develop housing on the former Madison Coal Company property now owned by the city at the east corner of Jefferson Street and Vaughn Drive. Jefferson County was awarded $3 million for a Krueger Lake Campground at the former Jefferson Proving Ground.

Season pass sales slash '24 Sunrise Golf Course deficit to $59,219

BY BOB DEMAREE

Sales of 2025 golf season passes in December gave Sunrise Golf Course a strong finish for 2024 that left a $59,219.79 deficit for the year, it was announced at Wednesday's meeting of the Madison Parks Board.

There was concern when it was reported at the December Parks Board meeting that the deficit stood at $131,500 at the end of November following previous successes in reducing a deficit that had been more than $300,000 four years ago. In 2022, the deficit was down to $72,455 and in 2023 it was $38,100.

"Sales of passes went well, and really broke into that chunk a little bit," said Parks Board member Jake Shockley.

For the year, revenue for the golf course was $584,379.45 with expenses of $643,599.24.

The Parks Board is committed to keeping its eye on spending beyond Sunrise Golf Course — especially with a $575,000 shortfall last year in the overall Parks Department budget. Carla Krebs, president of the board and a city council member, outlined the plan that's been set to repay that money by June.

Both Krebs and Shockley expressed hesitation that they should approve any claims this year without assurance that funds exist to pay them.

"I'm very leery after what happened to us last year about signing any claims without knowing exactly how much we have in our budget," said Krebs before agreeing to pay the parks department claims for January. "I will do it this one time," she said. "We always want to know that we're positive before we agree to pay money. We're a little gun shy." She said the payment was approved this time "under the condition we have a report from now on when we do this."

The meeting was the first for the Parks Board following the departure of Scott Klein as parks director last month. With no new parks director named, his role at the meeting was filled by Tanya Burnette, the assistant parks director.

One significant change of plans is that efforts to remake Sunrise Golf Course into a golf center have been scrapped with the focus now on repairing or replacing the aging irrigation system. A study is underway to determine what needs to be done to the irrigation and the approximate cost. When that's done, a plan will be developed to finance the new irrigation system.

"We want to get back to the basics of what we really need in replacing and updating the system," said Christian Hanson, grounds superintendent for Sunrise Golf Course. He said last year $12,000 to $15,000 was spent on parts to correct problems with the irrigation system, and the cost of "labor I can't put a number on it."

"From mid-Sept to end of growing season we were watering five fairways by hand, manually turning on valves, and there was lot of labor involved," said Hanson, adding there are leaks that continually need to be fixed and some that can't even be found. "We know they're leaking but can't find them. These are the kind of challenges we're running into."

Whitney Burdzilauskas, the Parks Department's athletic program manager, reported on plans to bring back T-ball this year, a program last year run through the Boys and Girls Club of Jefferson County.

Burdzilauskas said there will be a focus on T-ball and coach pitch league in an effort to rebuild Madison's youth baseball and softball programs. "We know it's going to be a longer road to rebuild our minor and major league program. We lost a lot of those kids awhile back," she said. "My goal is to build this from the grass roots back up starting with T ball and coach pitch in these years, and they will stay with us in minor and major league going forward."

With large numbers of youth enrolling in the Hanover Parks Department baseball and softball program, Burdzilauskas said she knows "we can't magically make the minor and major league program as hearty as Hanover's but I do think if we put together a good program, and we're good to the parents, then they will stick with us for years to come."

In other business, the board:

- Introduced Les and Natalie Hook as the new hosts of the city's Riverview Campground starting at the end March for opening April 4. They are originally from North Vernon but have much experience with campgrounds. "We've worked from North Carolina to Washington state to Texas, Arizona a lot of different places," said Les Hook.

- A service agreement has been signed with Rec Technologies, replacing RecDesk as the software for the parks and recreation department. Burnette said Rec Technologies "combines two different softwares we use into one," providing one system for payment processing.
- Hanson said he will go before the Historic District Board of Review for approval to add covers to dugouts at John Paul Park. "It will be a simple dugout," he said, with metal posts, metal roof and wood bench. Burnette said it's part of the effort to make the ball diamond there ready for adult softball that includes men's league and church league. Work will also be needed to get Kiwanis Park ready for T-ball, along with Rucker Sports Complex.

Cochran said he's heard discussions about a potential READI 3.0 round of funding to be considered by the Indiana General Assembly that is currently in session. "We were a little surprised at hearing about that, but several sources have talked about that. It's not currently in any legislative language but that doesn't mean it can't necessarily happen. We'll monitor that legislation. There are several pieces of legislation that we're monitoring that could potentially impact regional development districts around the state. We'll keep you all posted on that as well."

OurSIRDA chair Dana Huber said, "It's always great to hear that maybe there are discussions about READI 3.0. I think hopefully that makes us all very, very happy to at least know it's being discussed."

In other business, officer elections were held with Huber, of Clark County, reelected chair; Chris Fordyce, of Washington County, elected vice chair; and Ken Rush, of Floyd County, elected secretary-treasurer.

ASSETS

"The fiduciary responsibility of this board is to seek legal and financial advice regarding all claims and contracts regarding Miss Madison Inc.," said Courtney. "We must act in the best interest of the City of Madison and protect the legacy of Miss Madison, ensuring that any financial claims or obligations are thoroughly examined. I had hoped that resolution over the disposition of Miss Madison's assets and outstanding contractual obligations and claims could be worked through with the current board but unfortunately that is not the case."

Moving forward, the press release stated that a newly appointed board will work diligently to resolve outstanding financial matters, restore proper governance to MMI, and preserve its racing legacy for the City of Madison.

Commissioner Bobby Little (left) recognized Duane Hall at Thursday's Commissioners meeting after 43 years working for Jefferson County, the last four as the facilities manager. Hall began working for the county in 1982 and retired Jan. 3.

Longtime employee Hall honored by Commissioners

BY BOB DEMAREE
Special recognition was given to Duane Hall at Thursday's County Commissioners meeting after more than 43 years of taking care of county buildings. Hall, the facilities manager for the last four years, began doing custodial and maintenance work for the county in 1982, initially on contract but later as a county employee beginning in 1996. Commissioner Bobby Little had high praise for Hall's dedication to the county. "He knows every nook and cranny, all the water pipes. It's all unreal." Hall, who officially retired Jan. 3, has been affiliated with not just the Courthouse, but has done work in most every county building at some point including the Prosecutor's office, the Courthouse Annex, Health Department, Extension Office, Troy Morgan Safety Center and the downtown Sheriff's Department and Jail. "I was on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week," said Hall, being available at any time he was needed.

Snow removal was one of the instances when Hall would have been called in. Even during the times the Courthouse was closed, "the sidewalks are open seven days a week," said Hall. Other duties included mowing the grass, cleaning offices, emptying trash, stripping and waxing floors, keeping restrooms clean and supplied, repairing minor plumbing and electrical problems, and much more. "Whatever needed to be done," Hall said. Hall grew up with a sense of public service. His father, the late Bob Hall, was a city police officer who was assistant chief when he retired. He was also a driver for White Star bus tours and for American Coach. In other business, the Commissioners:

• Approved a renewal of the county's worker compensation policy through RLS Insurance for a premium of $127,588, a 17.15% increase over last year when it was $108,909.
• Approved hiring Reedy Financial to do a tax calculation for the county that is required for having the construction bonds on the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office and Criminal Justice Center. County Auditor Heather Huff said the calculation is required every two years until the bonds are repaid with the estimated cost $5,000 to $7,500. She said the jail bond money covers the cost of the tax calculation.

• Approved the appointment of Larry Wynn to the County Plan Commission and Gigi Christie to the Health and Human Relations Commissions.

2 zoning changes approved by Hanover Town Council

BY BOB DEMAREE
Two applications for rezoning were approved by Hanover Town Council at its meeting last Tuesday following recommendations by the Plan Commission. The rezoning was for 213 West Main Street to change from Commercial to Residential R1, where there is currently an empty lot where Bob Phillips, owner of Phillips Development Inc., wants to build a single family home. The other rezoning change was to rezone 221 East Lagrange Road from B1 Residential to B3 Highway Business, a property owned by Scott Williams, the town's superintendent of streets and utilities, to correct the zoning. In other business, the council:

• Announced the amount for the town's contribution for the Community Crossings Matching Grant (CCMG) for crack filling and seal coating on Main Street, Madison Avenue, Main Cross Street, Thornton Road and East Kuntz Road will be $59,370. With the town paying 25% for the grant, the total will be $237,480.
• Williams said stakes were put in ground Tuesday for the survey at the town garage to determine where fencing will go around the town's property there. Kroger told Williams to get quotes on the cost for the new fencing, and the town will seek grant funding to pay for it.

• Approved up to $6,000 for two 40-foot by 30-foot storage containers that will help with storing Christmas decorations and other items such as lawn equipment. Williams said the Christmas decorations are currently taking up a 20-foot by 40-foot area in the town garage.

• Approved payment of $490 to Wessler Engineering for the town's slip lining project to repair town pipelines.

• Set the annual fee for a city of Hanover golf cart use permit at $25.
• Reminded that trash rates for residents increased to $20 per month on Feb. 1 due to increased rates by Rumpke to the town. In 2026, the rate will increase to $22.50 and in 2027, it will increase to $25. "The reason we did that is our trash rates were going up continuously," said Kroger, noting that not passing that cost on to customers was putting the town trash collections in a deficit.

Hanover Parks gearing up for baseball, softball

BY BOB DEMAREE
Hanover Parks is gearing up for summer baseball and softball with Parks Director Scott Davidson announcing at last Tuesday's Hanover Parks Board meeting that applications are now available. Deadline for applications is March 26 with workouts starting the week of March 31 followed by team drafts. Practices will start the week of April 14 with opening day Monday, May 19. Applications for the baseball and softball leagues can be obtained by contacting Davidson. They are also available at the parks office, town hall, Jenny's Pizzeria and Champs Sports. Last year, Hanover Parks Department hosted a total of nine leagues for youth ages 3 through 12 with a total of 49 teams and 547 participating. Davidson said this year it's anticipated adding leagues for 13-14-year olds in which applications for that intermediate league will be available in April. Coaches meetings to prepare for the upcoming season are scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 19, and Monday, March 10, at 6 p.m. In other business, a list of committee members for this year's Hanover Park Committee will be presented to the Hanover Town Council for its approval at the Feb. 18 meeting. Committee members will assist the director with planning and implementing activities and events. Also, the Hanover community Easter Egg hunt is scheduled for Saturday, April 12, at the park.

Charter ceremony returns Kiwanis to Jefferson County

BY BOB DEMAREE

The charter ceremony Wednesday for the new Kiwanis Club of Jefferson County re-establishes a local presence for the international organization more than a year after the 97-year old Madison Kiwanis Club gave up its charter.

Marilyn Hutchinson, Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor for the Scenic Farms Division, had been a member of the former Madison club and when it ended continued to be involved by joining the Greensburg club. She began Wednesday's charter ceremony by saying, "Kiwanis is an international organization dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time. Our focus is on kids. This evening we celebrate our newest club in the Indiana district as they open the door to the opportunities they will provide for kids in Jefferson County, Indiana."

Kiwanis Indiana District Governor Al Riggle, who was instrumental in creating the new club, said "This is more than just a new club. This is a new opportunity."

Madison native Chrissy Whitham was recruited by Riggle to lead the new Kiwanis club. "I look forward to going forward in this community. I believe we are going to be a very strong Kiwanis, and I am looking so forward to making a difference," she said.

Whitham said it was the commitment of Kiwanis to youth that led her to accept the leadership role. "We want to be a pillar for the schools to rely on us" to fill gaps to help them succeed. "I know this community and I know this community is going to thrive with Kiwanis."

Riggle, who lives just outside the Scottsburg city limits, said that as a member of Kiwanis Club of Scott County that the Madison club was one "I used as an example of what we should be doing" so when it closed "that was a shock to me. They had a really vibrant club for almost 100 years, and had done just incredible things."

And even though the Madison club had given up its charter "I felt in my heart there was still a need for Kiwanis in the community, and when we looked around and started talking to some folks, there's still a need to work with the kids ... I felt we really needed to get back in here on the ground with the folks that have already been doing things with kids."

The new Jefferson County club has 20 members which Whitham said is "a great number for a new club. I'm hoping to double that."

Riggle is optimistic about what the new Kiwanis club can achieve. "This group has such initiative and I love their passion. They are ready to go. I think they are going to do beautiful things in the county."

Other club officers, in addition to Whitham, are secretary; and Kathy Dickie Copeland, president-elect; Yvonne Stika, secretary; and Kathy Ayers, treasurer.

Madison, Southwestern both see school records fall

BY DAVID CAMPBELL
GEORGETOWN — Lilly Canida came into Saturday's girls IHSAA Swim Sectional finals determined not to be beaten and the Madison Consolidated High School junior did just that, winning all four of her events in an impressive overall performance.
Canida won two individual events, the 50-yard freestyle and the 100 freestyle, then anchored two record-setting relays, the 200 medley relay and the 400 freestyle relay, both of which finished first.
"I came in today and I was like, 'I've prepared, and I told myself, I'm not losing,'" Canida said. "And I didn't."
Canida's wins were four of the five Madison scored in arguably its best-ever performance at a girls swim sectional. Avery Johnson, who was a member of both winning relay teams, also scored a victory when she won the 100 backstroke with a school-record 59.85.
Of Canida's four wins, the 400 freestyle relay was perhaps the most impressive. Madison was seeded first in the event, but by the time Canida hit the water for the anchor leg, the Cubs were in third place and trailing by nearly 12 yards.
No matter. Canida took off like a torpedo and by her second turn had closed the gap. She took the lead on the final leg and clinched the win with a time of 3:45.34 for a new school record.

"It's always fun coming back from behind. I was really looking forward to that. I was like, 'I don't care how far back, we are coming back,'" Canida said. "I knew we'd be behind and I knew I would have to fight to get back in. I was excited for it because I love doing that stuff."
Canida won that relay with teammates Reilly Kuppler, Avery Johnson and Tayleigh Johnson. The same quartet had opened the day with a win in the 200 medley relay in 1:50.37, another new school record. Canida also won both of the sprint freestyles — the 50 free in 24.41 and the 100 free in 53.26 — besting teammate Kuppler for the win in both, including by less than three-tenths of a second in the 50 free.

Overall, Madison placed fourth as a team with 300 points, believed to be the most points the program has ever scored in a sectional. Seymour won the sectional team title with 417 points, Floyd Central was second with 406 and Jeffersonville was third with 300. Southwestern finished sixth with 155 points and Switzerland County was ninth with 64 points.
Madison coach John Schutte was overjoyed at his team's performance.
"The unfortunate thing is as a coach, it's my fault. If we had set it up a little bit differently instead of competing against ourselves, we probably could have had two more (wins)," Schutte said. "You had Lilly and Reilly going against each other and it's always sad when you have to compete against your own teammates, but they both work hard. They knew what they were up against and they did a great job."

Southwestern also set a pair of new school records with the quartet of Crawford cousins posting both in relays. Sisters Raygan Crawford and Natalee Crawford, and sisters Riley Crawford and Haylee Crawford, placed fourth in the 200 medley relay in 1:59.49, a new school record. They also finished fifth in the 400 freestyle relay in 4:04.21 after setting a school record of 3:59.06 during that event's preliminaries on Thursday.
Natalee Crawford also had Southwestern's best finish on the day, placing second in the 100 backstroke in a school-record 1:00.79, less than a second behind Madison's Avery Johnson's winning performance.

Southwestern coach Jay Crawford was voted sectional coach of the year by the other coaches as he and coach Shelly Anderson had to coach around the Southwestern pool being closed for repairs much of the season.
"Before this season started, we had high hopes. We had imagined this year for a long time before it started. As you know, those dreams were not realized. We did, however, accomplish unexpected achievements," said Anderson. "Our athletes learned to be strong, resilient, and flexible. We broke three school records and finished 6th out of 14 teams in the sectional — we count that as a win. Those girls literally left it all in the pool."
Other finishes for Madison were: Reilly Kuppler, second, 50 free, 24.69 and second, 100 free, 56.25; Avery Johnson, fifth, 200 IM, 2:21.18; Tayleigh Johnson, fifth, 100 breaststroke, 1:14.41 and seventh, 200 free, 2:13.35; Madeline Guirguis, Anna Guirguis, Penelope Bibbs and Emma Wynn, sixth, 200 free relay, 1:59.82; Reagan Wynn, seventh, 500 free, 6:17.31 and 15th, 100 back, 1:27.12; Emma Wynn, 10th, 200 free, 2:20.23 and 15th, 100 free, 1:03.14; Kira Brittain, 10th, 100 back, 1:11.57 and 13th, 200 free, 2:26.15; Bibbs, 11th, 200 IM, 2:42.15 and 13th, 100 fly, 1:24.19; Poppy Kelsey, 11th, 100

Shawe's record-setting season comes to end in loss to Oldenburg

BY DAVID CAMPBELL
HOPE — Shawe girls basketball racked up a lot of firsts during its record-breaking 2024-25 season, but the Hilltoppers fell just short of the school's first-ever girls sectional championship.
Eighth-ranked Oldenburg Academy pulled away down the stretch to claim a 51-40 win over Shawe in the championship game of the Class A Sectional at Hauser on Saturday night.
The Hilltoppers trailed by three and had the ball with just over four minutes to play but couldn't get over the hump in their first-ever trip to the sectional finals. Oldenburg, which had not won a title since the 2006 season, then put away the win.
The best season in Shawe history ended without a title, but coach

Drew Kring was proud of his team.
"It's always tough when you get to a point like this. But I'm so proud. I mean, we had eight girls, we went 18-6, undefeated in the conference and got ourselves to the sectional championship," Kring said. "If you would have told me that from the beginning of the year, I'd take it."
Shawe (18-6) reached its first-ever sectional championship game by going through a pair of teams that won titles a year ago, 44-38 over Trinity Lutheran on Wednesday and 62-39 over Jac-Cen-Del on Friday. The victory over JCD was just the eighth postseason in program history for the Hilltoppers.
Shawe faced Oldenburg (21-4) in the championship and with a win over the Twisters earlier this season, was confident that it could pull out the win.

But nothing came easy for the Hilltoppers. Early foul trouble and missed shots put Shawe behind from the beginning and it played from behind the entire way. The Hilltoppers trailed 16-8 in the first quarter before rallying to close the gap to 18-15 by the end of the frame and to within one early in the second but still trailed 24-17 at halftime.
Every time Shawe would make a small run, Oldenburg answered and the Hilltoppers were unable to string together enough points. The Twisters pushed the lead to 11 (28-17) midway through the third and led 38-29 after three quarters.
"(Oldenburg) probably played as best as they could and that just shows you how good a team we are

South Ripley rallies from 15 down to stun Southwestern, 59-51

BY DAVID CAMPBELL
VERSAILLES — Southwestern dominated the first two and a half quarters of its sectional semifinal showdown with South Ripley on Friday, building a 15-point lead and seemingly putting the game on lockdown. But when the momentum shifted, it did so quickly and decisively. South Ripley outscored Southwestern 41-18 over the game's final 12 minutes and pulled away for a 59-51 win in the Class 2A Girls Basketball Sectional semifinals at South Ripley. The turnaround was as stunning as it was swift and left everybody on the Southwestern side shaking their heads. "It was like the tallest mountain in the world and they were at the top and we were at the bottom, and they were coming and there was nothing we could do," Southwestern coach Brian Crank said. "The game plan worked. Until it didn't." Southwestern (16-9) has been known for its aggressive man-to-man defense all season but Crank decided to throw a curveball at South Ripley, opening the game in a zone. The defensive switch seemed to confuse the Raiders, who hit just six shots from the floor in the first half and turned the ball over seven times.

The Rebels didn't exactly set the world on fire, but they hit enough shots to seemingly take control of the game. Southwestern led 11-1 after the first quarter and still maintained a 26-16 lead at the break. South Ripley (14-10) wasn't much better in the third quarter so Southwestern actually added onto its lead. Harlee Hill hit a layup with 5:31 to play in the third to push the Rebel margin to 33-18 and Southwestern had two more chances over the next minute and a half to gain more separation, but missed both shots. South Ripley's comeback began with a 3-pointer. Aubrey Werner hit a 3-pointer with 3:52 to go and Kaiya Renear hit a bucket a minute later to close the gap to 33-23 with 2:06 left in the quarter. That's when the wheels fell off for Southwestern. The Rebels missed five shots over the next minute and a half and South Ripley caught fire, quickly closing to within two (33-31) on another Werner 3-pointer with 30 seconds to go. Olivia Simpson stopped the bleeding with a free throw to give Southwestern a 34-31 lead at the break, but the dam had burst. A turnover at the start of the fourth led to a Claire Samples basket for South Ripley to cut the margin to one and a missed shot led to a Rinear basket on a run-out that put the Raiders ahead for the first time, 35-34, with 7:10 to play in the game. South Ripley took over from there, ripping off a 23-1 run that staked the Raiders to a 41-34 lead with 5:45 to play. Ripley eventually pushed its lead to 13 (56-43) with less than a minute to play before Southwestern scored the game's final eight points for the final margin. For Crank, the foundation of the Raiders' big rally was built on experience: South Ripley had it and Southwestern did not. "In the locker room. I was like, 'raise your hand if you ever been in the sectional semifinal.' We had zero hands raised. And when you look at South Ripley, they had several players with three and four years experience," Crank said. "(But) we never used that as an excuse all year and we won 16 games. We never used it as an excuse when we won. So we're not going to use it as an excuse when we lose." Freshmen sisters Savannah and Mikayla Nussbaum ended up leading the Rebels in scoring with Savannah scoring 14 points and Mikayla adding 13 points. Olivia Simpson had 11 points and three assists while Hill had six points and 11 rebounds and Baleigh McAfee had five points and 10 rebounds. Overall, Southwestern shot 33% (18-for-54) from the floor and outrebounded South Ripley 39-33, but also committed 17 turnovers. South Ripley shot 39% from the floor and was led by Rinear, who had 21 points and eight rebounds. Samples had 13 points and seven rebounds and Werner scored 12 points. South Ripley ended up losing 43-29 to No. 10 Brownstown (21-5) in the sectional championship game on Saturday.

Southwestern graduates three seniors — Hill, Chloe Leach and Bri Johnson — but returns four starters and a junior varsity that lost only one game all season so Crank is excited about the future. "If you look at us from our scrimmage on Oct. 30 to today, it's night and day," Crank said. "I told the girls that if they make that kind of leap next year, I guarantee you're cutting the nets down."

Southwestern's upset bid of No. 3 South Ripley falls a point short, 55-54

BY DAVID CAMPBELL
VERSAILLES — It ended up being a loss, but for nearly everybody wearing Southwestern blue and white, Thursday's defeat by South Ripley actually felt like a win. Despite playing without one of their top players for the fifth-straight game, Southwestern battled undefeated South Ripley down to the wire before falling 55-54 in boys basketball Thursday in Versailles. Southwestern had taken the lead on the third-ranked Raiders on a Caleb Goode 3-pointer with seven seconds remaining. But South Ripley's Drew Volz drew a foul with seven tenths of a second left on the clock and hit both shots to secure the win. Southwestern coach Zac Nussbaum never accepts moral victories but he was pleased and proud of his team's play on the night. "I'm really proud of just how hard they fought tonight. They came in here knowing that we're good enough to win, even without Brady (Cook)," Nussbaum said. "This was one of those games where sometimes the ball bounces your way and sometimes it doesn't. But I do think our boys can take confidence from just how well they played tonight." Cook had injured his back against Lawrenceburg on Jan. 24 and has not played since. As the team's leading scorer when he went down, the Rebels have learned to play without their junior leader on the floor. Thursday's game had all the markings of a tournament game and despite being a rare Thursday night matchup, the Versailles gym was packed and loud all night. The two teams went back and forth throughout the first half, trading the lead seven times before South Ripley's Cole Henry hit a bucket with two seconds to go to stake the Raiders to a 29-27 lead at halftime. Another last-second shot by Henry at the end of third gave Ripley a 38-37 advantage headed to the fourth.

Southwestern's Caleb Goode (24) and Caleb Seals (22) trap South Ripley's Blake Gunter during a boys basketball game in Versailles on Thursday. Class 2A No. 3 South Ripley won the game 55-54.

Southwestern's Landon Kidwell (34) blocks the shot of South Ripley's Drew Volz (10) during the Rebels and Raiders showdown in Versailles on Thursday. South Ripley won the game 55-54.

South Ripley (18-0, 4-0 Ohio River Valley) used that last-second shot to build momentum in the fourth, taking its largest lead of the game (45-39) with 5:36 remaining. But Southwestern wasn't about to back down. Still trailing 53-48 with just over a minute to play, Southwestern (13-4, 4-1 ORVC) got a 3-pointer from Braxton Lewis to cut the gap to 53-51 with 1:15 to play. The Rebels turned South

Ripley over twice in the final minute to set themselves up to win the game, but not without some heroics. Trying to line up for a good shot, Southwestern fumbled the ball and it bounced away toward mid-court. Goode scooped up the ball, turned to face the basket and, with a hand in his face, drained a straight-away 3-pointer with seven seconds to play. South Ripley called a timeout to set up a final

Madison boys drop games to Seymour, Batesville

Madison boys basketball suffered a 56-21 loss at home to Seymour on Thursday and then fell in a close 60-57 decision at Batesville on Saturday. Madison got off to a horrific start in the loss to Seymour, trailing 26-5 after the first quarter and 42-9 at the half. The Cubs played much better in the second half under a running clock, but were still outscored by two over that stretch. Damon Harden and Zachary Vinup scored six points each to lead Madison, which shot just 28% for the game and 2-of-14 on 3-point attempts. The Cubs also had 14 turnovers. Madison played much better on Saturday and had a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have tied the game in a 60-57 loss. The Cubs again trailed early, 16-8 after the first quarter, but battled back to within three (60-57) on a 3-pointer by Landon True with 1:36 to play in the game. Madison had two chances to tie the game in the final 18 seconds but missed both to fall by three. Harden scored 18 points, True had 15 and Vinup scored 11 to lead Madison, which hit 9-of-23 on 3-pointers and shot 41% from the floor overall. The Cubs had only six turnovers. Madison, now 7-12 on the season, hosts Greensburg on Saturday in a game that has been pushed up to a 2 p.m. varsity start due to the Greensburg girls team playing in the regional. The Cubs then host Columbus East on Feb. 21.

Dominant Eagles deny Chiefs Super Bowl three-peat 40-22

BY ROB MAADDI

NEW ORLEANS — Cooper DeJean, Josh Sweat and the Philadelphia Eagles' ferocious defense denied Patrick Mahomes, Travis Kelce and the Kansas City Chiefs a Super Bowl three-peat. It wasn't even close.

DeJean got a pick-6 on his 22nd birthday, Sweat tormented Mahomes and the Eagles routed the Chiefs 40-22 on Sunday to secure the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Jalen Hurts threw for two touchdowns and ran for a score on a tush push to earn Super Bowl MVP honors, and Vic Fangio's defense was so dominant that the Eagles didn't need much from Saquon Barkley.

The game-changing running back finished with 57 yards, breaking Terrell Davis' record for yards rushing in a season, playoffs included. Hurts threw for 221 yards.

"This is the ultimate team game. You can't be great without the greatness of others. Great performance by everybody — offense, defense, special teams," coach Nick Sirianni said. "We didn't really ever care what anyone thought about how we won, or their opinions. All we want to do is win." With Donald Trump becoming the first president in office to attend a

Super Bowl, the Eagles outplayed Kansas City in every facet, delighting a raucous pro-Philly crowd that celebrated each score with a familiar rendition of "Fly! Eagles! Fly!" Even Taylor Swift's presence couldn't help the Chiefs. They lost for the first time in 10 games this season with the pop superstar in a suite watching boyfriend Travis Kelce, who didn't catch a pass until late in the third quarter. Not in Kansas City's worst nightmares could its fans have imagined such a lackluster performance. The Chiefs had won three of the previous five Super Bowls, losing 31-9 to Tom Brady and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers four years ago. Mahomes was 8-0 against Fangio's defenses before the longtime coordinator and former Broncos head coach outcoached Andy Reid, capping his first season with his hometown team. Hurts quiets doubters with Super Bowl MVP

BY JOSH DUBOW

NEW ORLEANS — Jalen Hurts has often been judged by his failings more than his successes over the course of his career. Getting benched at halftime of a college football championship game. Being forced to transfer from Alabama to Oklahoma just to be able to regain a starting job. Getting drafted in the second round to be a backup and then having his passing prowess questioned as he quickly became a starter and had a successful launch to his NFL career. All those doubts helped fuel Hurts along the way and now he will be forever known as a Super Bowl MVP. While Hurts wasn't asked to do too much on a dominant defensive night for Philadelphia, he came through at nearly every opportunity when he was needed as the calm he has shown throughout his career was evident on football's biggest stage. He went 17 for 22 for 221 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for 72 yards and a touchdown in a 40-22 win over Patrick Mahomes and the Chiefs that avenged a Super Bowl loss two years ago against Kansas City. Hurts was outstanding in that game, throwing for 304 yards and a TD and rushing for 70 yards and three more scores but could only watch as Harrison Butker kicked a go-ahead field goal with 8 seconds left for a 38-35 win. Pawnbrokers raided in Burrow burglary denied bail before Super Bowl

BY PHILIP MARCELO
ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK — Two owners of a New York City pawnshop that was raided by the FBI in connection with an investigation into a burglary at the home of Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow were denied bail Friday, with a federal judge saying it would be "ironic" to release the men just two days before the Super Bowl.

"No thank you. This is one Super Bowl Defendants will have to watch from the sidelines," U.S. District Court Judge William Kuntz wrote in his decision ordering Dimitriy Nezhinskiy and Juan Villar held until their August trial date. "They will not be players this weekend." FBI agents on Tuesday swept into the men's pawnshop in Manhattan's Diamond District, an area that is a little more than a city block but is home to more than 2,600 jewelers and serves as a conduit for a majority of the diamonds that enter the United States. Prosecutors said a cache of suspected stolen property was found at the pawnshop and storage units in New Jersey belonging to Nezhinskiy. The shop, prosecutors said, served as a fencing operation that provided an "essential market" for stolen goods that encouraged burglary crews to target wealthy homes around the country. Nezhinskiy and Villar haven't been charged in connection with specific robberies, but prosecutors in New York said phone records link Nezhinskiy to one of the men charged with ransacking Burrow's house while he was playing in a game last year. The men charged in the burglary took photos of themselves flashing some of the spoils, which included jewelry, watches, designer luggage and glasses. One even wore necklaces with pendants showing the number 9 and "JB9," Burrow's jersey number. That break-in followed other robberies targeting other big-name American athletes. Among the high-end homes hit by international robbery crews were those of NFL quarterback Patrick Mahomes and tight end Travis Kelce of the Kansas City Chiefs, who are vying for their third straight title when they face the Philadelphia Eagles on Sunday in New Orleans. Prosecutors say the thieves also plundered luxury items from the homes of Luka Doncic of the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, and Mike Conley Jr. of the Minnesota Timberwolves. The investigation into the brazen burglaries has spanned several states and led to at least six arrests, though it's unclear whether there are any links between those thefts. Prosecutors say the crews, consisting of foreign nationals from South America, mostly hit the homes while athletes were out of town, including when competing with their teams on road games. Nezhinskiy's lawyer said he would immediately appeal the decision to jail his 43-year-old client, a Georgian national who lives in New Jersey. A magistrate judge had earlier set bail at $1 million secured by two family properties in New Jersey and $150,000 in cash. "The family is extremely upset with this change of events," Todd Greenberg said after the hearing. "They expect him to be home to fight this case." Villar's lawyer said he was also considering an appeal. "It's alarming," Lauriano Guzman said, noting his 48-year-old client, who lives in New York City, had been released less than 24 hours earlier after having posted $500,000 bail. The lawyers had pushed back at the suggestion from prosecutors that the crimes their clients were charged with were violent. Prosecutors argued the two, who have pleaded not guilty to stolen property charges, had lengthy criminal records, posed a danger to the community and were flight risks. "Their conduct promotes the victimizing of individuals in their homes and endangering communities on a large scale," prosecutors wrote in legal filings. "This conduct was not isolated, instead, it has been ongoing for years."

IU fans give lame duck Woodson warm welcome

Hoosiers rally late before losing 5th straight

BY MICHAEL MAROT
ASSOCIATED PRESS

BLOOMINGTON — Indiana Hoosiers coach Mike Woodson walked through the tunnel, down the line of student managers, trainers and assistant coaches and shook every person's hand Saturday.

Then the dapper-looking soon-to-be ex-coach went back to work as if nothing had changed.

One day after athletic director Scott Dolson announced Woodson would not return to his alma mater next season, he was back, designing plays, barking out signals, working the refs and doing anything he could to right the Hoosiers' sinking ship.

And for that, Indiana's boisterous fans seemed appreciative.

Instead of calling for Woodson's ouster, they cheered during Woodson's introduction and were roaring as the Hoosiers charged back from an 18-point deficit to tie the score with 4:08 before losing their fifth straight, 70-67 to No. 24 Michigan.

"It's been emotional," Woodson said in his first public comments since the announcement. "We're dealing with young men, trying to figure it out. But we still have seven more games and it's my job, as their coach, to push them to realize they can still win basketball games."

Woodson didn't take direct questions about the decision in his postgame news conference and Indiana did not make any players available to talk, either.

But the Hoosiers (14-10, 5-8) didn't want to embark on yet another coaching search — their fifth in 20 years — with a national television audience witnessing the ugliness that has unfolded during a losing streak that put Indiana's NCAA Tournament hopes in jeopardy and cost the 66-year-old Woodson his job.

Dolson's statement, released Friday, included a plea for fans to show their support for the program's players. And for the most part, the fans behaved as Dolson strolled through the crowd and greeted fans.

There was a smattering of boos when Woodson called a timeout less than five minutes into the game with Indiana down 14-5 and again with Indiana trailing 43-27 at the half though the pep band drowned out most of the boos while playing the school's fight song.

By game's end, though, the crowd was on its feet, roaring even louder as the Hoosiers finally tied the score at 59 with 4:08 to play. It also seemed to send a not-so-subtle message to first-year Michigan coach Dusty May, a Bob Knight protege, that he should consider leaving Michigan (18-5, 10-2), return to his home state and restore the glory of a five-time national champion.

"I think they have a good team and if the breaks go their way, I think they have a great chance to be one of many Big Ten teams in the NCAA Tournament," May said, downplaying his interest in succeeding Woodson. "I heard the ovation and to come where I came from — I never scored a basket at Indiana — it was nice. I appreciated it."

Of course, the Hoosiers also had high hopes for Woodson when he was hired in 2021.

Back then, the longtime NBA coaching veteran promised to hang banners, make deep postseason runs and mend fences with the long lingering rift among Knight loyalists who were still angry about Knight's firing in 2000.

And though Woodson started his college coaching career with back-to-back 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament wins each year, things went sour last season when Indiana missed the tourney and especially this season when Indiana was projected to finish second in the Big Ten.

But a series of miscues led to the mounting losses and intense pressure to move on from one of the best players in Hoosiers history. The question now is how will the Hoosiers — and their fans — respond over the final four home games of the Woodson era before potentially saying farewell to his Hoosiers in his hometown, Indianapolis, at the Big Ten Tournament.

"I wish I knew," Woodson said when asked why there hasn't been more success this season. "The rosters are changing every year and that's no excuse. You put the right pieces in place and I think our guys have wonderful intentions."

Kaufman-Renn double-double helps No. 7 Purdue beat USC

BY MARK AMBROGI
ASSOCIATED PRESS

WEST LAFAYETTE — Trey Kaufman-Renn had 24 points and 10 rebounds to lead No. 7 Purdue to a 90-72 victory over Southern California on Friday night for its fourth straight win.

Fletcher Loyer added 14 points for the Boilermakers (19-5 11-2 Big Ten), who outrebounded the Trojans 48-31. Braden Smith and Caleb Furst each just missed joining Kaufman-Renn with double-doubles. Smith finished with 9 points and a team-high 13 assists, and Furst also had 9 points and 10 rebounds.

Redshirt freshman Wesley Yates III scored 22 of his career-high 30 points in the first half for the Trojans (13-10, 5-7). Yates, whose previous high was 21 points, had to play most of the second half with four fouls after he picked up his fourth with 16:25 minutes left. Isaiah Elohim added 11 points and Jalen Shelley 10 for USC.

The Trojans played their second game in a row without leading scorer Desmond Claude, who's sidelined with a knee injury.

The Boilermakers shot 67% in the first half to take a 48-36 lead into halftime.

Both teams struggled from the 3-point line: USC shot 4 of 26, while Purude was 6 of 26..

TAKEAWAYS

USC: The Trojans, who lacked scoring punch with Claude out, were 16 of 29 from the foul line.

Purdue: The Boilermakers moved two games up in the win column over Michigan State and Michigan, both 9-2, in their quest for their third consecutive Big Ten regular-season title.

KEY MOMENT

With an assist from Smith, Myles Colvin's fast-break dunk energized the crowd and gave Purdue a 42-27 lead with 3:23 left in the first half.

KEY STAT

On a night when both teams had rough outside shooting games, Purdue held a 52-36 edge on points in the paint.

UP NEXT

Purdue is at No. 24 Michigan Tuesday (TV: Live on Peacock at 7 p.m.).

Hurts turned that year into a $255 million, five-year contract the following offseason but it didn't quiet the critics who questioned whether Hurts was holding back the Eagles offense at various points the past two years.

Outside of an early interception against the Chiefs — his first since Week 10 against Dallas — Hurts was nearly flawless against Steve Spagnuolo's defense.

He converted scrambles when he faced pressure and kept finding open receivers, with his 46-yard deep shot to DeVonta Smith making it 34-0 in the third quarter, providing an exclamation point to a lopsided Super Bowl win.

Hurts also threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown late in the first half and scored on a 1-yard tush push for the first score of the game, leading to a statistical performance achieved only by Hall of Famer Joe Montana in Super Bowl history.

The two are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 200 yards and two TDs, rush for at least 50 yards and a score with Montana doing it in Super Bowl 19 against Miami.

Hurts is now just the fourth quarterback ever to lose his first Super Bowl start and go on to win one as a starter later in his career, joining Hall of Famers John Elway, Bob Griese and Len Dawson.

Lakers shock Pacers 124-117 without LeBron, Luka

Reaves scores career-high 45

BY GREG BEACHAM
ASSOCIATED PRESS

LOS ANGELES — Austin Reaves scored a career-high 45 points and the streaking Los Angeles Lakers beat the Indiana Pacers 124-117 on Saturday without LeBron James or Luka Doncic.

Rui Hachimura scored 24 points for LA on his 27th birthday. The Lakers have won five straight and 11 of 13. Los Angeles jumped to a 25-point lead in the first half, and Reaves scored 14 points in the fourth quarter while the Lakers held off Indiana, the fourth-place team in the Eastern Conference, even without their two superstars. James sat with left ankle soreness, while Doncic watched his third straight game from the Lakers' bench as he nears a return from the strained left calf that has sidelined him since Christmas. James and Doncic sat together and talked throughout the game ahead of their expected joint debut Monday against Utah. Pascal Siakam scored 23 points and Tyrese Halliburton had 19 for the Pacers, who erased most of their huge deficit before fading in the fourth quarter. Indiana lost for only the fourth time in 17 games. Reaves nearly didn't play because of a sore left elbow, but elected to suit up with the Lakers' two stars sidelined. He scored 14 points in the first quarter and added a flurry of eight points early in the fourth, setting his career high on a steal and a dunk with 7:37 to play amid a standing ovation. TAKEAWAYS Pacers: An awful first half without Myles Turner, who sat with a head injury. Lakers: In his Lakers debut, journeyman guard Jordan Goodwin played 25 minutes and hit a key 3-pointer with 2:26 to play.

KEY MOMENT The Lakers had a third straight phenomenal first half, making 15 of 21 shots and leading 53-28 midway through the second quarter. KEY STAT Indiana went 31 of 32 from the free-throw line. UP NEXT The Pacers host the Knicks on Tuesday.

Fever add 2-time WNBA champ Colson to roster

INDIANAPOLIS — The Indiana Fever signed free agent guard Sydney Colson on Thursday, adding yet another WNBA champion to play behind All-Star point guard Caitlin Clark. Colson spent the last three seasons in Las Vegas, the franchise that has won the last two league titles. She also was a key player on the 2011 NCAA champion Texas A&M Aggies. "Sydney is a proven veteran in our league and throughout her career, delivered for her teams in many big moments," general manager Amber Cox said in a statement. "She brings a championship pedigree to the Fever, adding depth to our point guard position. We have the utmost confidence in her ability to step into any situation and deliver on both ends of the floor." Colson has averaged 2.8 points and 1.6 assists since being drafted by the Connecticut Sun in 2011 and subsequently traded to the New York Liberty. She also has a career shooting percentage of 40.4%, including a career best 44.4% during the first of the Aces' two title runs. The six-time playoff veteran, who will likely back up Clark, continues the trend Indiana has been searching for this offseason. Indiana already has signed free agent forwards Natasha Howard and DaWanna Bonner, who both have championship rings, and traded for shooting guard Sophie Cunningham, who spent the past six seasons with title-contending Phoenix. They'll join a Fever nucleus led by three returning All-Stars — Clark and forward Aliyah Boston, the last two WNBA Rookies of the Year, and shooting guard Kelsey Mitchell — from a team that ended a seven-year playoff drought last season before exiting in the first round of the playoffs. Colston thinks she'll fit right in with Indiana. "I am very excited for this new opportunity with Indiana. I know several players and coaches from the Fever, and I trust what I know about them," Colson said. "I'm excited to be a part of the vision that the staff has for this team, and I'm ready to get to work."

Edwards’ double-double lifts Louisville 88-78 over Miami

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Terrence Edwards Jr. scored 27 points while distributing 10 assists and committing just two turnovers and Louisville controlled the majority of the way in beating struggling Miami 88-78 on Saturday.

Reyne Smith scored 26 points and J’Vonne Hadley scored 12 for the Cardinals (18-6, 11-2 ACC) who finished shooting 49.3% (33 for 67). Louisville shot 11 for 12 (91.7%) from the foul line.

Reserve A.J. Staton-Mc-

Cray scored 22 points, Matthew Cleveland scored 21 points, and Lynn Kidd and Divine Ugochukwu each scored 10 for Miami (5-18, 1-11). Cleveland has scored 20-plus points in six straight games.

Louisville shot 54.1% (20 for 37) in the first half in which Edwards shot 6 for 9 and scored 15 points.

Louisville guard Chucky Hepburn did not play due to a groin injury sustained within the first five minutes of the second half in Wednesday’s road win at Boston College.

Hepburn’s replacement Noah Waterman threw down a dunk and two possessions later buried a 3-pointer for a 19-14 Cardinals advantage with 11:51 before halftime. The Cardinals went to the break up 46-38.

The Hurricanes closed to within 52-49 with a 14-6 spurt early in the second half but were never closer.

Louisville travels to play N.C. State on Wednesday (TV: Live on ESPN2 or ESPNU at 7 p.m.).

No. 14 Kentucky snaps 2-game skid 80-57 over Gamecocks

BY STEVE MCCLAIN
ASSOCIATED PRESS

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Otega Owhe scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half and No. 14 Kentucky snapped a two-game skid with an 80-57 win over South Carolina on Saturday.

Brandon Garrison came off the bench and scored 15 points for Kentucky

TAKEAWAYS

South Carolina: The Gamecocks struggled offensively and went through a seven-minute stretch over both halves without a field goal. They made three free throws during that stretch and were 4 for 22 from 3-point range.

Kentucky: The Wildcats welcomed back Lamont Butler, who had been out with a shoulder injury since Jan. 25. He scored eight points and provided a needed defensive lift after Kentucky had given up an average of 93.5 points in consecutive games. Starting guard Jaxson Robinson played after injuring his wrist in practice on Friday and being listed as questionable.

KEY MOMENT

South Carolina had cut the Kentucky lead to nine at 50-41 on Murray-Boyles’ layup with 10:30 left. But, Owhe hit a 3-pointer and converted a steal into a dunk to start a 15-0 run and push the lead to 20 points.

KEY STAT

After starting the game by shooting 1 for 9 and missing a several layups, Kentucky shot 12 for 23 the rest of the half. The Wildcats outscored the Gamecocks 12-1 over the last four minutes for a 33-19 lead.

Kentucky hosts No. 4 Tennessee on Tuesday (TV: Live on ESPN at 7 p.m.).

most of his career, including 2½ by Sweat. And they did it without Fangio calling a single blitz.

“Defense wins championships,” Hurts said. “We saw how they played today. We saw the difference they made in the game. They gave us opportunities, gave us short fields. And we’re able to do what we do.”

Barkley, the 2024 AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year, only had 31 yards rushing in the first half when Philly built a 24-0 lead.

The Chiefs were aiming to become the third team in NFL history to win three straight championships and the first to three-peat in the Super Bowl era.

Hurts nearly led the Eagles to victory against the Chiefs two years ago in Arizona, but Mahomes led a comeback and Harrison Butker kicked the game-winning field goal in the final minute for a 38-35 victory. Mahomes rallied Kansas City to an overtime victory over San Francisco last year for the Chiefs’ second straight title.

“That’s a great football team and we had to come out and play our best, and we did,” Siriani said.

This time, a revamped Philly defense featuring eight new starters from the 2022 team made sure Mahomes had no chance to pull off his magic.

Sirianni, who mocked fans chanting “Fire Nick!” during a victory over Cleveland in October and was called a “clown” on national television, should finally silence critics by adding a championship ring to a resume that includes the fifth-best winning percentage in league history.

Sirianni was showered with Gatorade with nearly three minutes left in the game while backup QB Kenny Pickett took snaps in mop-up duty.

Barkley helped push Hurts into the end zone from the 1 to give Philadelphia a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

Up 10-0 after Jake Elliott’s 48-yard field goal, Sweat and Jalyx Hunt sacked Mahomes on consecutive plays.

Mahomes then rolled out and made an errant throw that was picked by DeJean, who returned it 38 yards for a 17-0 lead.

It was Mahomes’ first pick-6 in 21 career play-off games and ended a streak of 297 straight passes without an interception.

All-Pro linebacker Zack Baun picked Mahomes again late in the second quarter, and Hurts connected with A.J. Brown on a 12-yard TD pass for a 24-0 lead.

Hurts threw a perfect 46-yard TD pass to DeVonta Smith to make it 34-0 late in the third.

Mahomes fired a 24-yard TD pass to Xavier Worthy to avoid the shutout, but the 2-point conversion failed. He threw two late, mostly meaningless TD passes, one to DeAndre Hopkins and another to Worthy.

After two weeks of discussions about questionable calls that led to public perception that officials favor the Chiefs — a theory NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell called “ridiculous” — the first penalty of the game only fueled critics.

A 32-yard pass from Hurts to Brown to the Chiefs 18 on fourth-and-2 was negated by a penalty for offensive pass interference. Brady, now a Fox analyst, and officiating analyst Mike Pereira both disagreed with the call, although Brown shoved Trent McDuffie’s facemask.

On the next possession, the Eagles benefited from an unnecessary roughness penalty on McDuffie against Dallas Goedert following an incomplete pass on third-and-5.

Hurts then connected with Jahan Dotson on a 27-yard pass to the 1 and scored on the next play.

Hurts’ streak of 217 passes without a pick ended in the first half when he was intercepted deep in Kansas City territory, but the Chiefs didn’t capitalize.

The Green Bay Packers are the only NFL team to win three championships in a row, doing it from 1929-31 and 1965-67.

The NBA’s Los Angeles Lakers from 2000-02, led by Kobe Bryant and Shaquille O’Neill, are the last team in the major American professional leagues to win three straight titles.

play. Southwestern took away the Raiders' two top options so it was Volz driving into the lane and getting fouled by Kidwell with just a gasp of time left on the clock. Volz hit both shots to put the Raiders up by one.

Southwestern set up a final play but the Rebels' full-court baseball pass went out of bounds. South Ripley then burned the final tick to secure the win.

"I just keep reminding them that when we get them back healthy, they just got to keep playing with that same mentality," Nussbaum said. "When you add one of the better players in southern Indiana to the team that played tonight, I'm really excited for what this team can do."

The 6-foot-6 Kidwell came out on top in his battle with the 6-foot-7 Henry, scoring 20 points to lead the Rebels. He even knocked down a pair of 3-pointers.

"He's put in the work, and he's earned everything that Landon Kidwell gets because he's a gym rat," Nussbaum said. "Tonight, he's like, OK, you got some size on me, I'm going to step out and hit some shots. And he knocked them down with confidence. I guess I'm going to have to call some plays to get him some shots outside. We may have found a new facet to his game tonight."

Lewis added 16 points and Goode had 11 for the Rebels, who went 6-for-6 from the free-throw line but did not attempt one in the second half. South Ripley, meanwhile, was 15-for-16 from the foul line and had just eight turnovers.

Blaine Ward scored 28 points to lead South Ripley and Henry had 15.

Southwestern travels to Rising Sun on Friday and heads to Floyd Central on Saturday. The Floyd game has been moved up to a 2 p.m. start to accommodate Floyd's girls team playing in the regional.

"We're giving them a couple of days off to physically and emotionally and mentally, just recharge. And then we've got six games in an 11-day stretch," Nussbaum said. "So we've got to kind of recharge here this weekend, and just get better."

because that's probably as bad as we've played in a while," Kring said. "We played hard, but I think we're just tired, we couldn't hit shots. And when that happens, you've just got a bear down."

Shawe opened the fourth with its best run of the game. Ava Turner drained a 3-pointer and Audrey Barron hit a shot to close the gap to 38-34 with 6:55 to play. The Hilltoppers then got the lead down to three twice, the last time on a Barron bucket with 4:59 left that closed the gap to 40-37.

Shawe got the ball back but turned it over, eventually leading to an Oldenburg free throw. Another Hilltoppers turnover led to a Twister basket that pushed the lead back to six.

Shawe never got any closer as Oldenburg closed out the win.

The IHSAA State Finals will be held at the Indiana University Natatorium in Indianapolis beginning on Friday. The preliminaries start at 6 p.m.

Senior Turner had 10 points and classmate Allison Knoebel had eight.

On Friday, Shawe rolled over Jac-Cen-Del 62-39 in the semifinals. Barron had 31 points and eight rebounds, Turner had 18 points and six rebounds and Knoebel had six points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists.

The loss ends the careers of Turner and Knoebel who helped lead a turnaround for the once beleaguered program. Shawe won two Ohio River Valley Conference titles during their tenure and a school-record 18 games this season. Knoebel graduates with 1,244 career points, tied with Kate Grote for second-most in school history.

"I think Allison and Ava have probably had the best careers of any two Shawe basketball players ever," Kring said. "You can't say enough about those two. Those two are two of the best players that Shawe's ever had, and we're gonna miss them."
